Notice of Preparation for IPO of U.S. Subsidiary REALM IDx, Inc.

Konica Minolta, Inc. (Konica Minolta) announces that its U.S. subsidiary, REALM IDx, Inc. (headquartered in California, USA, hereinafter referred to as "REALM IDx") is preparing for an IPO and listing in the United States. Konica Minolta will promptly provide details of the IPO as and when relevant decisions are made and as allowed by U.S. securities regulations.

About REALM IDx

REALM IDx is a consolidated subsidiary in the United States and operates as a holding company for the Precision Medicine business, with Ambry Genetics Corporation, Invicro, LLC and KONICA MINOLTA REALM, Inc., as its wholly-owned subsidiaries. Konica Minolta has decided to prepare for an IPO and listing in the United States in order to provide REALM IDx with the ability to raise funds for the future growth of this business.

Konica Minolta intends that REALM IDx will remain its consolidated subsidiary after the listing, as there will be no change in the business strategy positioning of its healthcare business.
