(Notes)

1. “Business contribution profit” is calculated by deducting the cost of sales and selling, general and administrative expenses from revenue.
2. The Precision Medicine Business is classified as a discontinued operation from the nine months ended December 31, 2024. As a result, revenue, gross profit, business contribution profit, operating profit or loss, profit or loss before tax, and research and development expense represent the amount of continuing operations excluding the discontinued operation. Profit or loss attributable to owners of the Company and basic earnings or loss per share represent the sum of continuing operations and the discontinued operation. In addition, the figures for the nine months ended December 31 2023, is also compared with the figures after reflecting the above changes.

In the Medium-term Business Plan, which defines the current fiscal year as the second year of the plan, efforts are being made to strengthen our profit foundation and cash generation capabilities with the aim of returning to being a highly profitable company. Additionally, with the aim of achieving growth from next fiscal year onwards, the Company has clarified the roles and expectations for each business and are committed to the completion of management reform by promoting the business selection and concentration, as well as global structural reforms.

In terms of business selection and concentration, the Group completed the transfer of all equity capital of Invicro, LLC (“Invicro”) to Calyx Services Inc. on April 30, 2024 in line with the policy of third-party capital utilization for non-focused business and resetting of strategic direction for growth of direction-changing business. In addition, on November 5, 2024, the Group decided to enter into an agreement to transfer all shares of Ambry Genetics Corporation (“Ambry Genetics”) to Tempus AI, Inc.. As a result, effective from the nine months ended December 31, 2024 (the "current period"), the Precision Medicine Business is classified as a discontinued operation, and in the quarterly condensed consolidated statements of profit or loss, profit or loss from discontinued operation is presented separately from continuing operations, and the same reclassification has been made for the nine months ended December 31 2023. The execution of Ambry Genetics' share transfer was completed on February 3, 2025 (U.S. time). In addition, the Company entered into an agreement to transfer all shares of Konica Minolta REALM Inc., a domestic operating company on January 14, 2025. Regarding DW-DX unit, which has been positioned as a direction-changing business, the Company is also narrowing down regions, countries of operations, and business domains by assessing profitability of each region and service.

The Group's consolidated revenue amounted to 831.8 billion yen (an increase of 3.5% year-on-year) for the current period. Business contribution profit was 28.8 billion yen (an increase of 59.1% year-on-year) and operating loss was 18.4 billion yen (a decrease of 33.1 billion yen from operating profit of 14.6 billion yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year). Loss before tax for the current period was 28.5 billion yen (an increased loss of 33.1 billion yen from profit before tax of 4.6 billion yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year) and loss attributable to owners of the Company for the current period, including the discontinued operation, was 13.3 billion yen (an increased loss of 9.2 billion yen from loss attributable to owners of the Company, including the discontinued operation, of 4.1 billion yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year).

In terms of revenue by businesses, the Digital Workplace Business, the Professional Print Business, and the Imaging Solutions Business have recorded increases in revenue year-on-year, partly due to the impact of the yen depreciation, while the Industry Business recorded a decrease in revenue year-on-year. Business contribution profit improved 10.6 billion yen year-on-year, mainly due to reasons such as an increase in gross profit resulting from an increase in revenue in the Digital Workplace Business and the Professional Print Business, an improvement in the gross profit margin thanks to cost reductions and other factors, as well as a reduction in selling, general and administrative expenses and others.

With regard to operating profit, business structure improvement expenses of 17.6 billion yen (0.8 billion yen year-on-year) were recorded as expenses for global structural reforms, expenses and others associated with ending production of Konica Minolta Business Technologies (WUXI) Co., Ltd., the manufacturing subsidiary in China.

In addition, due to the impact of major customers' large-scale capital investment restraint and increased competition in certain applications, the operating profit has deteriorated in Radiant Vision Systems, LLC ("Radiant") and Instrument Systems GmbH ("Instrument Systems"), which belong to the sensing unit of the Industry Business, and indications of impairment have been recognized. As a result of performing an impairment test, since the recoverable amount was lower than the carrying amount, an impairment loss of 23.6 billion yen was recognized. Efforts are being made to enhance competitiveness and business management efficiency through strengthening key account management as one globally. In addition to improvement of display area, the Company is promoting to establish to solid earnings foundation through continuous growth of measurement instruments for automotive visual inspection and measurement instruments applying hyperspectral imaging technology etc.

Konica Minolta Opto (Dalian) Co., Ltd., which belongs to the optical components unit, entered into an agreement on October 26, 2023, to transfer 80% of its shares to Guangzhou Luxvisions Innovation Technology Limited. However, as a result of discussions toward closing, it was decided that this transfer would no longer be included. Therefore, the Company ceased to classify the assets as held for sale and reduced the carrying amount to the recoverable amount in the process of reclassifying them to regular assets and liabilities during the three months ended December 31, 2024. As a result, an impairment loss on property, plant and equipment of 4.5 billion yen was recognized. Going forward, the Company continues to strengthen the products for semiconductor manufacturing equipment applications as optical components unit and aims to increase the production efficiency of non-Industrial lens units, which the Company continues to sell, and enhance profitability through structural reforms.

The reportable segments have been reclassified, effective from the fiscal year ending March 31, 2025. In the year-on-year comparisons, the Company compared and analyzed the figures with those for the nine months ended December 31 2023 excluding the discontinued operation and reclassified based on the new reportable segments. More details are provided in “2. QUARTERLY CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND RELATED NOTES, (6) Notes to the Quarterly Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements [Segment Information] and [Discontinued Operation].”

"Operating profit" is the total of "Others" and "Adjustments" of segment profit (loss) within the same table.
3. Effective from the current fiscal year ending March 31, 2025, FORXAI and QOL Solutions, which were previously included in "Others," are now included in the "Imaging Solutions Business." In addition, the Precision Medicine Business has been classified as a discontinued operation, and the Company represent figures for continuing operations excluding the discontinued operation from the nine months ended December 31, 2024. In the year-on-year comparisons, the Company compared and analyzed the figures with those for the nine months ended December 31 2023 excluding the discontinued operation and reclassified based on the new reportable segments.

i. Digital Workplace Business

Revenue of the Digital Workplace Business was 458.5 billion yen (an increase of 1.8% year-on-year), business contribution profit was 30.0 billion yen (an increase of 47.0% year-on-year), and operating profit was 15.5 billion yen (a decrease of 20.8% year-on-year). Business contribution profit increased in line with the effects of global structural reforms in the office unit and the reduction of selling, general and administrative expenses by narrowing down the business areas of the DW-DX unit. Operating profit decreased due to one-time costs related to global structural reforms and ending production activities of Konica Minolta Business Technologies (WUXI) Co., Ltd., the manufacturing subsidiary in China.

Revenue of the office unit increased year-on-year. The sales volumes of A3 MFPs with color models, monochrome models, and all models turned out to be at 92%, 97%, and 94% year-on-year, respectively; however, the hardware revenue was on par with the same period last year, partly due to the contribution of foreign exchange rates. The non-hardware revenue, such as consumables and services, saw an overall increase, partly due to the contribution of foreign exchange rates. By region, revenue increased in Europe, the United States, and China.

In the DW-DX unit, which mainly offers, such as IT services, revenue increased year-on-year. The services to manage business content and operation processes, which the Company is focusing on, were robust in Europe. In-house developed services, such as interpretation services using AI, grew in Japan. Revenue of the managed IT services decreased as a result of narrowing down regions and business areas based on profitability.

ii. Professional Print Business

Revenue of the Professional Print Business was 207.5 billion yen (an increase of 9.4% year-on-year). With the increase in gross profit resulting from the rise in revenue, business contribution profit grew to 10.7 billion yen (an increase of 21.8% year-on-year). One-time expenses associated with the global structural reforms were recorded, and operating profit amounted to 8.8 billion yen (an increase of 0.9% year-on-year).

In the production print unit, revenue increased year-on-year. The sales volumes of color models, monochrome models, and all models reached 99%, 91%, and 97% year-on-year, respectively; however, sales of hardware saw a rise due to the impact of foreign exchange rates. A 124% year-on-year increase in sales volume of the Heavy Production Print (HPP) with the fastest print speeds, which the Group especially focuses on, contributed to this growth. As for the non-hardware, such as consumables and services, revenue also increased year-on-year. Regionally, the revenue of the non-hardware increased in the United States, China, and India, remained stable in Europe, and decreased in Japan.

In the industrial print unit, revenue increased year-on-year. In terms of hardware, sales volumes of label printing, textile printing, and embellishment printing decreased, however, sales volumes of inkjet digital press (AccurioJet KM-1e) increased, and overall revenue increased. Non-hardware experienced revenue growth across all areas, including inkjet digital printing, label printing, textile printing, and embellishment printing, driven by the rising demand for digital printing. Efforts are being made to improve profitability with the aim of achieving profitability at an early stage.

In the marketing services unit, revenue increased year-on-year. In the print procurement support business, sales performed well due to intensified promotion activities of major customers in Europe, the United States, and Asia. The revenue of on-demand printing in South Korea also increased.

iii. Industry Business

Revenue of the Industry Business was 89.1 billion yen (a decrease of 1.0% year-on-year). The revenue of inkjet (I) components increased, however, due to trial tests for increased production and the rise in new product development tests in the performance materials unit, the selling, general and administrative expenses increased, furthermore, due to the lower gross profit resulting from lower revenue in the sensing unit, the business contribution profit amounted to 10.7 billion yen (a decrease of 14.3% year-on-year). As mentioned above, the operating loss of the Industry Business amounted to 17.6 billion yen (compared to an operating profit of 11.9 billion yen in the same period last year) due to recognition of impairment losses of 28.2 billion yen in the sensing unit and the optical components unit.

Revenue in the sensing unit went down compared to the same period last year. Revenue of light source color measurement instruments decreased due to the slowdown of demand, affected by restrained capital investments in displays mainly by major customers as well as intensified competition for some applications. The sales from object color measurement instruments decreased in Europe and the United States, but sales remained steady, particularly in Asia, resulting in revenue that was on par with the same period last year. Revenue of measurement instruments applying hyperspectral imaging technology increased due to strong sales of mainstay products, especially for recycling applications. The measurement instruments for automotive visual inspections saw steady sales, mainly in Europe and the United States, resulting in an increase in revenue.

In the performance materials unit, revenue increased year-on-year. Revenue of TAC films for TV decreased due to the decrease in demand. Sales of SANUQI-VA for large-screen TVs increased due to the expansion of demand and increased adoption for customers. In addition, sales of thin films for IT devices decreased due to the stagnation of the panel market for IT devices. Surplus stock in supply chains of thin films for smartphones from the same period of the previous fiscal year is reducing, and the demand showed a recovery trend, resulting in a steady revenue.

In the IJ components unit, revenue increased year-on-year. In the printheads for sign graphics application area, which is the fundamental area, although sales in China slowed due to the impact of economic downturn, sales remained steady in Europe, the United States, South Korea, and India, resulting in an increase in revenue as a whole. In the printheads in growth areas, the Company's proprietary high-gap ink ejection printheads launched in December 2024, have begun to be adopted by domestic and international customers, primarily for printing application on cardboard.

In the optical components unit, sales of pick-up lenses used in Blue-ray and similar devices decreased, resulting in a decrease in revenue compared to the same period last year. On the other hand, in the field of industrial applications, on which the Company focuses, revenue of products for semiconductor manufacturing equipment has increased due to a strong market, and the Company is promoting efforts to improve production capacity for future business expansion, such as enhancing lens processing technology for higher precision.

iv. Imaging Solutions Business

The Imaging Solutions Business recorded a revenue of 76.0 billion yen (an increase of 4.1% year-on-year). Business contribution profit of the imaging-IoT solutions unit and the visual solutions unit increased, however in the healthcare unit, business contribution profit decreased due to a decline in sales of digital radiography (DR) in Japan and X-ray film in China. As a result, the business contribution loss was 7.1 billion yen (compared to a business contribution loss of 6.4 billion yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year). Additionally, the operating loss amounted to 7.4 billion yen (compared to an operating loss of 8.2 billion yen in the same period of the previous fiscal year). The loss has decreased year-on-year due to the impairment loss recognized in the visual solutions unit in the previous period.

The healthcare unit saw an increase in revenue year-on-year, mainly due to the impact of foreign exchange rates. Revenue of DR saw growth primarily in the United States. Sales of the Dynamic Digital Radiography system, which the Company is focusing on, grew mainly in Asia and Europe. Sales of medical IT remained strong in Japan and the United States. On the other hand, the sales volume of DR in Japan and X-ray film in China decreased, leading to a decline in sales.

The imaging-IoT solutions unit recorded an increase in revenue year-on-year. Revenue of the monitoring camera solutions progressed steadily in Europe and the United States. In addition, sales of Force Security Solutions, LLC (headquartered in the United States), the system integrator acquired in 2023, continued to be strong.

The visual solutions unit saw an increase in revenue year-on-year. Customer traffic at the directly managed planetariums in the domestic business remained strong.

This is primarily attributed to a decrease of 65.4 billion yen in goodwill and intangible assets, a decrease of 23.0 billion yen in cash and cash equivalents, a decrease of 19.0 billion yen in trade and other receivables, a decrease of 6.2 billion yen in property, plant, and equipment, an increase of 60.1 billion yen in assets held for sale, an increase of 27.4 billion yen in inventories, an increase of 6.7 billion yen in other non-current assets, and an increase of 6.3 billion yen in deferred tax assets.

Total liabilities as of December 31, 2024, were 833.8 billion yen, a decrease of 0.8 billion yen (0.1%) from March 31, 2024. This is primarily attributed to a decrease of 8.3 billion yen in other current liabilities, a decrease of 7.1 billion yen in bonds and borrowings, and an increase of 5.2 billion yen in provisions.

Total equity as of December 31, 2024, was 548.9 billion yen, a decrease of 4.4 billion yen (0.8%) from March 31, 2024.

Equity attributable to owners of the Company was 535.3 billion yen as of December 31, 2024, a decrease of 4.5 billion yen (0.8%) from March 31, 2024. This is primarily attributed to the recording of a loss attributable to owners of the Company of 13.3 billion yen and an increase of 10.9 billion yen in other components of equity (primarily exchange differences on translation of foreign operations).

As a result of the above, the equity ratio attributable to owners of the Company decreased by 0.2 percentage points to 38.7%.

(6) Notes to the Quarterly Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

[Notes Regarding Going Concern Assumptions]

Not applicable.

[Change in Accounting Estimates]

In the sensing unit of the Industry Business, due to the impact of major customers' capital investment restraint and increased competition, Radiant Vision Systems, LLC and Instrument Systems GmbH deteriorated in operating profit and indications of impairment were identified. An impairment test was conducted during the three months ended December 31, 2024. As a result, the recoverable amount was lower than the carrying amount, Radiant Vision Systems, LLC recorded an impairment loss on goodwill of 16,907 million yen, and Instrument Systems GmbH recorded an impairment loss on goodwill of 6,742 million yen.

In addition, on October 26, 2023, the Company entered into an agreement to transfer 80% of two manufacturing subsidiaries' shares in China, which belongs to the optical components unit of the Industry Business, to Guangzhou Luxvisions Innovation Technology Limited. However, as a result of discussions toward closing, the Company entered into an amendment to the agreement to transfer only 80% of the shares of Konica Minolta Optical Products (Shanghai) Co., Ltd., and Konica Minolta Opto (Dalian) Co., Ltd. would no longer be included. Therefore, the Company ceased to classify the assets as held for sale and reduced the carrying amount to the recoverable amount in the process of reclassifying them to regular assets and liabilities during the three months ended December 31, 2024. As a result, an impairment loss on property, plant and equipment of 4,570 million yen was recognized.
